

On October 24, Community Development Director Yolanda Bundy led a Zone Captains meeting at the Rebuild Center, bringing the team together for a focused work session aimed at accelerating progress. The meeting centered on strategies to issue 10 or more additional building permits and explore new ways to support homeowners through the rebuilding process. Zone Captains were also encouraged to reach out to homeowners within their areas to identify how the City can further assist them in moving their projects forward.