

On November 19, The Community Development Department—along with Director Bundy and Assistant Director Tyler Eaton—met for a weekly Zone Captains meeting. This week’s meeting covered ongoing rebuilding efforts, property status updates and upcoming permits to be issued to homeowners. The City remains committed to supporting every resident through the rebuild process and encourages homeowners to work closely with their design professionals. Mayor Riffin and Councilmember Steve Uhring were also in attendance.

